Farmers are still busy trying to get their crops gathered. Cotton is about out, some few have corn to gather, others have their peanuts to harvest, while some are threshing.

There are but a few families left in our community, as some have gone off to pick cotton, while others have employment elsewhere.

Rev. J. H. Mathis, wife, baby girl and Mrs. Ethel Brown attended the funeral of Mrs. Brown's sister-in-law, Mrs. Wiley Key, at Black Jack last Thursday.

Mr. Arthur Smith and wife of Cameron visited in the Lonnie Smith home Friday.

Mr. H. H. Smith who was operated on at Temple last year, doesn't seem to be doing well and is going back soon.

Rev. J. H. Mathis and family and Levi Mathis, visited in the home of the latter's daughters, Mrs. S. J. Henery at Cameron, Sunday.

Leroy Lyles has returned home from the Navy. He has purchased him a V-8 since returning home.

Albert Key of Black Jack spent awhile in the J. H. Mathis home Sunday evening.

Mr. Tom Key and wife and Mrs. Orphia Key spent awhile Wednesday in the J. H. Mathis home.

Elmer Mathis who is at Merkel pulling bolls reports crops good there.

Miss Juanita Spenee visited in the Lonnie Smith home Friday, and Eloise returned home with her and stayed until Saturday afternoon.
