

The Giddings News

November 20, 1942

HENDERSON CHAPEL

Everybody is through gathering in this community, waiting for a peanut trasher to thresh the nuts.

Most everybody is thinking about getting winter wood since the big frost and freeze last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ran Mathis and Mr. B. F. and R. B. Caraway, all of Lexington spent last Tuesday in the home of Rev. J. H. Mathis.

Lonnie Smith and family spent Sunday at Cameron.

Rev. J. H. Mathis and family spent Sunday in the Oris Spence home in the Pleasant Grove community.

Elmer Mathis and family will return home from Taylor County this week-end where they have been for some time pulling bolls.

Rev. J. H. Mathis and family just missed a car wreck last Saturday night by getting into the bar ditch, caused by a runaway horse in the road.

Rev. J. H. Mathis will fill his regular appointment at Black Jack Sunday. Everyone is invited and let's make it a wonderful day in the service, also in Sunday School.