

The Giddings News

January 3, 1941

HIGH PRAIRIE

Mrs. W. C. Wood received a message Christmas of the death of her nephew Frank Chamberlain of Wharton. He was in business there and leaves a wife and two small daughters, also his mother and father Mr. and Mrs. Lester Chamberlain, two sisters and one brother. His death was caused from acute appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Norville of Houston visited relatives here through Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pieratts and son spent the holidays in La Grange.

Pink Stanley and family spent the holidays with Mrs. Stanley's relatives at Gus.

Miss Vira Dodd from Waller visited her parents.

Mrs. Thurston O'Barr, Mrs. Ellen McClellan and daughter Johnnie Mae, Mrs. Milton McClellan and son visited in the W. C. Wood home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Ovcarik spent Christmas with Mrs. Ovcarik parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carter are visiting in the Knox Beaman home. Ira has been on the sick list for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Heck and sons spent the holidays in Giddings with relatives.

Visitors in Mrs. B. H. King's home Sunday were Messers and Mesdames Herbert Jacob, Lawrence Goldberg, Rudie Schoenberg.

Miss Marguerite Dodd and Miss Jane Hughes spent the week-end with Effie Dodd in Giddings.

I am wishing all the readers of the Giddings News a Prosperous New Year and specially to the Editor and family.

Mrs. Connor Wood.