

HIGH PRAIRIE

We are very sorry to learn Mrs. C. W. Stanley was taken to a Brenham hospital Monday suffering with pneumonia. We hope for her a speedy recovery. Most all her children visited her Monday.

Mrs. R. R. Lawrence was pleasantly surprised for her birthday Friday night with her friends and relatives bringing in good things to eat. Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. E. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ovarcik, A. C. Turner and family, Mrs. B. H. Keng and sons, Marshal and Marjorie Dodd, Mrs. Mary Wilhite and children, Edward Alcorn and J. P. McGuire. All wish her many more happy birthdays.

Miss Vira Dodd of Waller visited her parents J. R. Dodd and family from Monday until Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Goodson and son Charles Murphy and Mrs. J. A. Alcorn were Debelevill Friday to see Mr. Bob Skelly who is very low.

Most everyone is hoping the weather will stay fair so the farmers can get their land in condition to plant.

Rev. Crone and wife of Rockdale was with us Saturday night, accompanied by Mr. O. A. Kyle of Dime Box.

Saturday night Bro. Hooter will be with us and hear a good sermon and also enjoy our new lights which are just fine.

Most everyody has recovered from the flue in this community. We are sorry to report Mrs. Easter Gurum's death which was caused by the flu.

Mrs. Cain is still in Taylor.

Some days she feels better and on others worse. We hope her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sallis of Chilton were down a while Sunday visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hownds and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Sallis.

We have church service every Friday night. Everybody come and bring some one with you.
