

The Giddings News

February 27, 1942

HIGH PRAIRIE

Mr. and Mrs. Rector Dodd and daughter, Miss Ima Joe Wilhite and Miss Margurete Dodd visited Rector Dodd's daughter Marjorie in a hospital at Brenham. She is much better after having her appendix removed.

Mrs. J. R. Dodd and son Marshal were called to the bedside of Mrs. Dodd's grandchild, Charles Murphy Goodson in Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Pink Stanley and children visited relatives in Bastróp Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Helmer from Brady visited Mrs. Charlie Stanley who is on the sick list.

Claude Bolander and Jim Tompson and families spent Sunday in the Simon Green Home.

Miss Vira Dodd from Houston visited her parents recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ealy from Gatesville visited here recently among relatives.

HIGH PRAIRIE

Mrs. D. W. Stanley is suffering with an attack of flu and asthma, we hope she will be better soon.

Miss Marjorie Dodd had an appendicitis operation in a hospital in Brenham Thursday. She is doing nicely and will return home Wednesday.

Rector Dodd and family, Marguerite Dodd, Ima Jo Wilhite spent Sunday in Brenham.

Lewis Stanley is working in Giddings.

Miss Vira Dodd, Lillian Dickerson, Floyd Helmer were here from Houston this week end.

Mrs. Jim Dodd and son, Marshal, were called to the bedside of Charles Goodson, small son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Goodson of Temple, who is suffering with pneumonia.

Roy Beaman is here from Louisiana.

Mrs. Lella Helmer of West Texas is spending awhile with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stanley.

I want to take this means in thanking my friends for their many kind deeds during my recent operation. Am improving, able to get about some at this writing. Mrs. H. B. Keng.