

HIGH PRAIRIE NEWS

Mrs. B. H. King

Those visiting in the J. R. Dodd home over the week-end were the H. D. Dodds of Tyler, Marshal Dodd and family of Giddings and James W. Dodd of Belton.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Koether, formerly of New Caney, visited their parents here Sunday and returned to Edinburg where he has recently been transferred.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Loewe had as guests over the week-end Elmer Brooks, Mrs. Minnie Roehmer and Lillie of Austin.

Mrs. Carrie Smith of Bastrop, Rita Kilpatrick of Austin, and Dan Dodd of Houston spent the week-end here.

Mrs. A. C. Lawrence and Billie and Mrs. B. H. King were in Giddings Monday on business.

Mrs. J. P. Stanley Jr. and Mrs. J. P. Stanley Sr. helped Mrs. Jim Thompson move to Burton Friday.

Mrs. Herbert Michalk and daughters, Mrs. Dean Wilhite and Mrs. Mary Wilhite were visitors in the A. C. Lawrence home Thursday.

Mrs. King visited in Carmine a few days last week with her son. He is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stanley of Edna visited their parents and other relatives here Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bartex of Caldwell visited Claud Flippin over the week-end.

Mrs. Claud Flippin was in Brenham Saturday.

Wayne Kruger and family of Caldwell visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green Sunday.

Howard Dodd Sr. was in this community over the week-end.

Sick List

Joe M. Green is improving, but is still confined to the bed. He is always glad to have visitors.

Easter Egg Hunt

There will be an Easter egg hunt at the church at 6 o'clock, just before the services by Vernon Sydow, Sunday night.