

The Giddings News

July 30, 1920

PAIGE AND HILLS NEWS

The crops around this community are very nice, only need a good rain in a few days.

Mr. G. Behrens filled his Silo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ad. Haverland were the visitors of Mr. Chas. Saegert Sunday.

Notice! There has been two Sundays when Mr. Anton Behrens isn't go to Wm. Hamff. Why he goes there we don't know.

Miss Minnie Haverland visited home folks Sunday.

Dagerath's young folks and Mr. Mike Raschke attended church in Giddings Sunday mornng.

Mr. Fritz Foerster must have gone to see his girl Sunday night, because he came home very late.

Mr. Henryr Dagerath went to Paige Sunday night; of course, his excuse was, he had to take Mike home.

Mr. Oscar Mattisa tried to be smart Sunday night and not travel the highway, but when he passed by Wm. Saegert's, Henrietta with good eyes saw him and with a strong nerve asked him where he was going.

Mr. Ben Haverland and family were the visitors of Wm. Saegert of Lincoln Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Puddle McDavid of Paige had a car collision with Mr. August Burgdorf of Hills Sunday evening.

Mrs. F. Schneler and son, Emil, were the visitors of Mr. Ernest Dagerath Sunday evening. So Emil had to go home so soon, we sure would like to know how Miss Ila Dagerath felt about that.

Mr. Otto Haverland had a different horse Sunday night; we did know him, and that is not all, he rode across the new crossing at Hills, if you would ask him where he was, he would say, at Ad. Haverland, but we know better. Don't we Otto?

Mr. Emil Fischer had a large crowd at his farewell party Sunday night.

Mr. Hermann Dagerath went to see Miss Alvina Baasen Sunday evening.

Miss Alma Behrens sure addresses lots of letters to Waco.

Mr. Henry Dagerath drove his bronco to Hills Saturday evening, and it won't be long until he will be driving it to Paige on Sunday nights. How about it Henry?

"CHUMS."