

The Giddings News

May 18, 1923

HILLS NEWS

Crops around here are looking fine, and the rain Monday night was of much benefit.

R. H. Baasen, accompanied by his mother and sister, motored to Waco Saturday and returned Tuesday.

Rev. A. Vetter and family, and E. C. Rehrens and family were visitors at Wm. Hamff's Sunday evening.

Ed. C. and Ottillie Hamff, Earl Hill, accompanied by Mr. Ludwig of Paige and Mrs. A. Hamff of this place, motored to Brenham Sunday and returned that day. Eddie returned with a smile. He will probably make another trip.

Gerhard Behrens celebrated his 60th birthday Sunday, May 13th with all his children present except Mrs. Henry Parr of Houston. Many relatives and friends were present to enjoy the many good things to eat, and also the refreshments. The day was enjoyed by all who wish him many more birthdays.

Sunday night, four autos of young people from Hills motored to Lincoln and enjoyed the dance at the home of Walter Zwernemann.

Best wishes to the News.

Smiles