KNOBBS LOCALS

Special Correspondence to the News

The farmers are busy at work with their cotton, now that we have had so much rain. Almost every one is through chopping and hoeing.

Mrs. Robert McCord who is in the Bastrop sanitarium under treatment is some better.

Mr. Robert McCord, little Miss Irene McCord, and Mrs. Dee McDavid went to Bastrop Sunday.

Mrs. Dan Stephens and family of Rockdale spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bird.

Mrs. G. A. Dismukes who is in Jacksonville visiting her daughter will return home Sunday.

Mr. John Allen and family and Misses Ethel and Odellah Dismukes spent Sunday at the Burke home.

There was a cream supper at Mr. Claud Capps' Friday night which was enjoyed by all who attended.

Mrs. Cordia Burke and family and Miss Erna Smith spent Sunday at Mr. Hatch Dismukes

The Austin Oil and Gas Company is reported about eight hundred feet down with their well.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson spent the week end here.

Mr. Riley Smith made a trip to Beaukiss Sunday night. We wonder(?)

Mrs. Edd Moore spent the latter part of last week with her parents.

There was a party at Alfred Brownings of Elm Grove Saturday night and almost all of the boys of this community attended and reported enjoying it.

Prospects for corn about here are fine.

There will be a picnic at the Knobbs July 14 for the benefit of the cemeteries. Every one is invited to come. All who have ever attended a picnic at the Knobbs know that there is always something good to eat and plenty of it.

Many good wishes to the editor and its many readers.
