

KNOBBS SOCIALS

Special Correspondence to the News

† Guthrie †

Mr. Lon Guthrie, while driving his cattle to the dipping vat last Wednesday, happened to the misfortune of his horse running over a calf, throwing the horse down and killing Mr. Guthrie. He was a resident of McDade and leaves a widow and two daughters. He was buried in the Knobbs cemetery by the Modern Woodmen.

Mr. Guthrie grew up in this community, married one of our daughters and he was known as a good man. The community extends sympathy to the mourning ones.

† †

The Baptist meeting closed Monday night with six additions to the church. Rev. J. A. Stephens assisted Rev. Fleming. There was quite a crowd in attendance Sunday as it was the home-coming, being the 61st anniversary of the church.

Hamp Burke and family of Elgin spent the week end with relatives here.

The body of Archie Clopton arrived in New Jersey Friday. It will be laid to rest in the cemetery at this place.

Charlie Sherman and family will return to their home in Temple Saturday.

Sam Sherman of Smithville attended the funeral here.

Mrs. Nance took dinner with Mrs. Dabe Smith Sunday.