

KNOBBS LOCALS

Special Correspondence to the News

† McFARLAND †

The remains of Mrs. Ura McFarland, wife of Sid McFarland, were laid to rest in the Knobbs cemetery Monday at 10 o'clock. She had four children, two of whom died in infancy, and there remains a boy three years old and a baby girl three days old at the time of her mother's death. She leaves a husband and her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hughes, three sisters, Misses Lessie and Maudie Hughes and Mrs. Dave Mitten of Houston, two brothers, Jim and Marion Hughes. She was living at the time of her death at Circleville, but she had lived the most of her life at Knobbs and Blue. She is gone but not forgotten.

By a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Plemmons are spending a few days with relatives here this week.

Hatch and Elva Dismukes, Eugene Bostic and Irwin Nance went to Robstown Monday via auto.

Dave Smith and wife and son made a business trip to Elgin Monday.

Alex. Dismukes had the following as family guests Sunday: Jewell Dismukes and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson, Mrs. Dave Smith and daughter Erma and son Riley, Misses Dorothy, Bessie and Mildred Dismukes, Desser and Clovie Guthrie, Bettie and Eula Bell Harrison and R. R. Hackworth of Mt. Pleasant.

Rev. Fleming filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Misses Lottie and Annie Mundine spent a few days at the Guthrie home at McDade.

Fritz Alford has been going to McDade here of late. We wonder why?