

The Giddings News

June 17, 1932

KNOBBS SPRINGS NEWS

The farmers are all busy after the rain, and the crops are looking fine. The women are all busy canning vegetables.

Quite a few of the people from the Knobbs attended the revival at Blue last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson spent the evening Sunday in the home of his father, Mr. J. C. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Capps spent the afternoon in the home of G. A. Dismukes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee McDavid and family spent Sunday in the home of Rev. L. E. Holt.

There were quite a few people in the home of Mr. Wm. Smith Saturday night.

The annual picnic and barbecue will be held at the Harrison Spring July 7. Every one is invited. There will also be a Rodeo. reporter.