

— 0 —
LEDBETTER LOCALS.

"Never a Christmas Morning.

Never the Old Year ends,
But somebody thinks of somebody,
Old days, old times, old friends.
The young people of Ledbetter who ave been away at school, teaching, in the office and behind the counter, will soon be at home to spend Christmas with home folks.

Mrs. Knittle will have a Christmas program in the school hall the evening of the 24th.

Mrs. J. W. Folkes returned Saturday day morning from a two weeks stay in Houston, the guest of Mrs. Wilder, Mrs. Folkes' sister.

Mrs. Herman Knittle and children accompanied by Mrs. Grover Boone of Dime Box, motored over Friday afternoon to get Mrs. Knittle to spend the week-end. Mrs. Knittle returned home Sunday afternoon.

"CORRESPONDENCE"