

The Giddings News

March 4, 1921

LEDBETTER LOCALS.

About 12:30 Saturday morning of the past week, as Mr. L. C. Rummel, Mrs. Leonie Weyand, Mrs. Max Weyand, Miss Helen Rummel and Schaufeur Lige Campbell (Col. were coming from Breaham and just entering Burton, two men with pistols flashing in the moonlight stepped quickly to their car and ordered them to "stop" Lige, with presence of mind, recognized one of the men called him by name and told who he was, when they were ordered to "go on" which they quickly did. This all happened in a few seconds but the fright to the ladies especially, will live on as one of the occupants stated, her blood ran cold from the inside out, and a severe headache was the result of the nervous shock. Investigation proved the men to be the Burton officers who were on the look out for the thieves who robbed and then set fire to the Old Washington Post Office.

Miss Clara Rummel, a member of the Teachers State board of Examiners at Austin, was the guest of relatives here from Saturday until Tuesday. Monday afternoon Miss Clara accompanied by Mrs. L. C. Rummel, motored to Round Top, Miss Rummels old home.

Mrs. Leonie Weyand and Miss Helen Rummel returned to Wallis Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Erwin Albers, Mrs. and Miss Ollie May Albers went to Smithville, Friday, returning home Saturday.

Mrs. Herbert Kruse and children of Chappell Hill were guests of relatives here the past week.

Robert Moss of La Grange was shaking hands with friends here Wednesday.

Mr. Robert Stark had the misfortune to lose a very fine jersey cow the past week.

Good rains fell here Tuesday and Wednesday.

"CORRESPONDENT"