

The Giddings News

April 29, 1921

LOCALS

M. Bennett of Houston is the guest of her parents here the past week.

Mrs. M. E. Rogers of Houston is the guest of friends here. F. McClellan was in Austin Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Sallna Erwin after visiting her brother and family in Beat Five and friends and relatives returned Friday to her home in Houston.

Miss Lois O'Barr of Daniel Baker College in Brownwood is now at home.

Miss Mary Lucy Denkler's school closed Friday and she is enjoying a well earned rest with her parents here.

Mr. Ed H. Moss and son, Miles, motored over from La Grange Sunday. Mrs. Louise Moss accompanied them here and will remain awhile with her daughter Mrs. Mary Albers.

Mr. Bennie Stork who has completed his bookkeeping course in Toby's Business College in Waco, is at home enjoying mother's good cooking.

Valedr Stuermer while gathering dewberries Sunday morning was bitten by a snake, but nothing serious has resulted from the bite.

CORRESPONDENT