

Ledbetter Locals

Special Correspondence by the News

We are having showers daily but at this writing not a good season is in the ground.

The following young people from here have gone to their schools as teachers or students:

Miss Cecil Folkes to teach in the Ft. Towsen, Okla., school; Miss Edna Kruse in the Chapel Hill school; Mr. Emmet Hill and Miss Helen Kruse in the El Campo school; Miss Leonie Weyand and sister Mrs. Helen Rummel in the Wallis High School. The following are attending the different schools:

Miss Evelyn Stuermer, C. I. A.; Miss Johnie Mae McClellan and Miss Lillian Stuermer, San Marcus Normal; Vivian Stuermer, Houston; and Rudolph Hillsman, Erwin Rost and Earl Rost, Giddings High School.

Miss Mary Lucy Denkler opened her school in Nechantiz Monday.

Jerry Rummel, a rail road employee in Childers, visited his parents here a few weeks, since going from here to all the principal cities in the East and over into Canada.

Mr. Gilbert Albers of Lincoln is teacher of the Ledbetter school which opened the 19th.

Mrs. Fannie Hodges has as her guests her son Jeff Hodges from Fairland and sister, Mrs. M. E. Taylor who will stay with her through the winter.

Miss Fannie Drowe is visiting her sister Miss Letter Drowe in Austin.
