

The Giddings News

December 7, 1923

Ledbetter Locals

Thanksgiving passed with many joys. Those who had no turkeys at their homes at elsewhere.

Guests at the hotel for the holidays were Misses Marie Baker, Baby Alexander, Mrs. Wilder, son Charle, all of Houston, and Miss Bettie Wilder of San Marcos.

Miss Marguerite McClellan spent Thanksgiving at her home in Elgin.

Miss Mary Lucy Denkler spent the week-end with home folks.

Mrs. Collier of Houston visited friends and relatives.

Mrs. Kelly of Burton spent several weeks with Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Hodges, having gone to Fairland to see her son and family.

Mr. C. W. Sanders, wife and daughter, Vivian and Max Weyand and wife of Camefon have from the reunion at the Jackson home, Teague, Texas.

Mrs. Jack Burns returned from Chapel Hill Sunday.

Franklin Fleming spent the holidays in Elgin.

Misses Fannie Drawe and Hester Hill spent Thanksgiving day in the T. M. Vanderworth home.

Miss Helen Rummel of the University, Mrs. Weyand of Buda spent the holidays with home folks.

Those who didn't go to College Station to see the game heard it over Kruse and Guehrs Radio, with cheers for Texas!