Birthday Anniversaries.

Monday evening a large group of friends and relatives gathered at the home of A. O. Hannes to help Mrs. A. O. Hannes celebrate her birthday anniversary. Various games were enjoyed by the men folks such as skat, forty-two, and dominoes. The women kept up a great conversation, while the children played some their good old school games. A delicious lunch consisting of different cakes, pies, cookies, coffee cake, sandwiches, and punch were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rethke, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stork, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Siegmund and son Melton, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Vanderwerth and little daughter Teddy, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Braun, Mr. and Mrs. Gobel Sanders and children Joyce, James and C. W., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ebner and children Glenroy and Loreta, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Albers and son Louis and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hannes and daughter Joan Sue, Misses Freda Braun, Vivian and Bernadette Rauch, Mr. Fritz Schmiedekamp and Mr. Alfred Braun. Everyone departed at a late hour wishing Mrs. Hannes a birthday like that twice a year, but she said she wouldn't mind only she would become an old lady much to soon.

Mrs. Robt. Koerth observed her natal day Tuesday.

Miss Lorena Albers of Waldeck is employed in the C. W. Sanders home since last week.

Shorty Etzel of Galveston underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Brenham hospital about two weeks ago and is now staying with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Etzel. We hope he will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rethke and Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hannes and daughter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Siegmund and son of New Prospect Sunday.

Mesdames Bishop, Wyatt, and Miss Sydonia Schatte of Giddings were in our town Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Rethke and family of Port Arthur called on their relatives here for several hours Friday morning.

Mrs. L. Hoddston and children of Houston spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton McClellan and son left for Pottsboro about two weeks ago to make their home for awhile.
