

The Giddings News

January 30, 1942

LEDBETTER

Miss Mary Helen Matejowsky of Nechanitz spent several days with relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stork and Mrs. Robert Koerth were in Giddings Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rethke were among those to help Robt. Siegmund of New Prospect to celebrate his birthday anniversary Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Siegmund and son of New Prospect visited Wednesday night with A. O. Hannes and family.

Mrs. Adolph Etzel and Miss Johnnie Mae McClellan motored to Carmine Friday afternoon on business.

Newton Craig of College Station spent the week-end with his aunt, Mrs. Theo. Vanderwerth, Jr. and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Urban and Oswald Hannes of near here spent Saturday evening with A. O. Hannes and family.

Mrs. Annie Stork and daughters of New Prospect visited Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Stork Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed. Hosea and little daughter of near Giddings spent several days in the John Bell home this week.

Mrs. Nellie Brendle and Mrs. John Bell are both patients in the La Grange hospital since the first of this week. Both are very ill at this writing.

Miss Alyce Etzel has returned home after visiting several weeks in Smithville.