

The Giddings News

March 20, 1942

—o—
LEDBETTER

Herman Stork of Arlington visited with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Stork recently.

Edgar Rummel entertained with a party at his home Wednesday night of last week with a group of friends present. An enjoyable time was spent by all.

Mrs. D. T. Childress of Giddings visited with relatives here Wednesday afternoon.

Reinhard Stephan enjoyed fishing at the river at Winchester Friday afternoon.

Ed Hosea and family of near Giddings spent Friday in the John Bell home.

Mrs. R. A. Stork spent the week-end visiting with relatives at Houston.

Otis Rauch and sister Miss Bernadette, and Mr. and Mrs. Milton McClellan were Austin business visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Kieke of Helotes spent the week-end with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kruse and daughter of Brenham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kruse.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hannes and daughter spent Sunday afternoon with Otto Schreeder and family of Brenham.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pethke visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rethke of near Giddings Sunday afternoon.

A farewell party was given at our school house Sunday night for Otis Rauch who left for the Army Tuesday morning. May the best of luck be with him while serving our country.

Adolph Siegmund and family of Prospect visited with A. O. Hannes and family Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hannes and little daughter of Port Arthur visited briefly with relatives here Friday.

Miss Lois Rust spent the week-end in Giddings with Miss Inez Krauss.

Since the first of this week Reinhard Stephan has developed a case of chicken pox. We hope he will soon be well again.

A. O. Hannes and family were among a crowd of friends to help Mrs. Clarence Urban of near here to celebrate her birthday anniversary Monday night.

Our school children have been busy practicing for their small school meet. They have been jumping, running relays, climbing the bar, hop-step-jumping, baseball throwing, volley ball throwing and have also been practicing spelling and arithmetic.

On Sunday, March 22, six schools will be on our school grounds to compete with each other for the championship of the Second Annual Ledbetter meet.