

The Giddings News

April 10, 1942

LEDBETTER

Miss Johnnie Mae McClellan entertained several of her lady friends with a quilting party at her home Thursday afternoon.

A. O. Hannes and family enjoyed a good old fish supper at the home of O. E. Hannes and family near Waldeck Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Stork of Ennis and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stork of Arlington spent the week-end with relatives.

Ben Braun is a patient in a Brenham hospital since last Friday night, where he underwent an operation. His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

Herman Hielscher and family of Carmine visited with John and Frank Bell Friday.

Edgar Blume who is serving in the U. S. Army spent Sunday with his brother Kermit Blume and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. John Braun of Walhalla were here to see relatives Sunday.

We had a wonderful church service here Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. Studmann, pastor of the Immanuel Luth. Church of Giddings. A very large crowd was present. After services an Easter egg hunt for the kiddies, and a treasure hunt for the grown-ups were enjoyed by all. We will have services again next Sunday night at 8 o'clock by the same pastor.

Mrs. Adolph Etzel and son Clifton spent several days last week visiting with relatives at Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Larche of Brenham spent awhile with A. O. Hannes and family Sunday evening.

Herbert Kruse and family of Brenham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kruse.

Clarence Rethke of Giddings spent Monday afternoon with relatives here.

Little Teddy Vanderwerth is on the sick list with the measles this week. We hope she will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Winzel Matejowsky of Abernathy are here visiting relatives this week.

We are so happy to state that our City Cemetery is looking fine. Mr. Adolph Etzel who has been cleaning the cemetery for the past several years, completed another year last week. His good work along with the beautiful flowers in bloom give us great joy in our hearts as we think of our loved ones who are resting in such a spot.

The dry weather was broken Monday night when a very heavy rain began to fall, causing many smiles upon the faces of men.