

The Giddings News

June 12, 1942

LEDBETTER

Mrs. Robt. Stork, Mrs. Bob Koerth and daughter and Mrs. Henry Siegmund and children motored to Giddings Wednesday afternoon to do some shopping.

A number of relatives and friends gathered at the A. O. Hannes home Friday night to help Mr. Hannes celebrate his birthday anniversary. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by the following guests: Messers and Mesdames Robt. Stork, Ben Braun, Lee Rethke, Clarence Urban, Oswald Hannes and Paul Werchan. Everyone wished the honoree many happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Levy and little daughter of Bastrop visited several days last week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Levy.

Miss Inez Krauss of Giddings spent the week-end with relatives.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Blume were: Mr. and Mrs. Branch Noutzler and son of Carmine, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wickel and daughter Doris, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eckert and son, all of Greenville.

Egon Albers and family spent Sunday with relatives at Waldeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Stork were Sunday visitors with relatives in Odenburg.

RELATIVES IN MAQUOKER.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Urban of Waldeck spent awhile with A. O. Hannes and family Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rethke visited with Robt. Siegmund and family Sunday afternoon.

E. P. Stuermer and son Ernst motored over to Houston Sunday to spend the day, and were accompanied back home by Mr. Stuermer's daughters, Misses Evelyn and Lillian Stuermer. They will spend most of the summer here.

Henry Siegmund and family spent Sunday with relatives in Burton.

Fritz Schmiedekamp attended the funeral of a relative at Smithville Saturday.

Next Sunday night, June 14, beginning at 9 o'clock, Rev. Max Studtmann of Giddings will again conduct services here at our church.

A very good rain fell here last week after quite a long dry spell. This rain was of great benefit to the field and garden crops.