Ed. Hosea and family of Giddings spent Sunday with her father and brother John and Frank Bell. While there the children of Ed Hosea playing about the house discovered a loaded shot gun and upon examining the gun, the gun was discharged, shooting a finger from the hand of a baby girl, causing much excitement. The child was rushed to a Giddings doctor where special treatment was given and up to this writing the little girl is doing nicely.

Tuesday night a group of friends and relatives gathered to help Mrs. A. O. Hannes celebrate her birthday anniversary. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all.
