

LEDBETTER

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stork spent several days during last week with Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Sigmund and son of New Prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lerche of Brenham visited with A. O. Hannes and family recently.

Bill McClellan and family of Fort Worth spent the week-end with his mother Mrs. Ellen McClellan and other relatives.

Wallace Levy and family of Waco spent last week with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Levy.

Sal. Vanderwerth and wife of Houston visited with relatives here recently.

James Sanders is attending school at Burton this term and Lois Rust and Wesley Baasen are going to school at Giddings. Anelta Sigmund of New Prospect is attending our school this year, and we are so glad to have her here in school.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rethke spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Sigmund and son of New Prospect.

Miss Lillian Stuermer of Houston spent the week-end at home with her father E. P. Stuermer and brother Ernst.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Braun spent Sunday with relatives at New Prospect.

Mrs. Henry Sigmund celebrated her birthday Sunday with the following relatives and friends present: Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Koerth, John Mueller and family of Burton, Oscar Sigmund and family of New Prospect, Mrs. W. Ponfick and grandson of Carmine, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stork and family of here. Everyone departed wishing the honoree many more happy anniversaries.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Blume Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ad. Neutzler and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund McCuskey and son, of Greenvine.

Alvin Mueller, Adolph Albers and Ernst Weishuhn and families, all of Waldeck, spent Sunday with Elton Albers and family.

Miss Norma Bloh spent the week-end at Giddings with relatives.

Eddie Arndt is on the sick list since last week with a case of mumps. We hope he will soon be well again.

Prof. Elmo Marburger of College Station was in our town for awhile visiting with friends Sunday afternoon.

Miss Norma Schubert is now employed in Carmine.

Mrs. Pauline Weibush of Brenham spent last week in the H. J. Stuermer home.

A photographer visited our school one day last week and took pictures of all the pupils.

The school children made a drive for scrap iron Monday morning. Full of pep and anxious to do something for their country they went with wagons and wheelbarrows from house to house gathering iron. With smiling faces they returned to the school house at noon with several hundred pounds of scrap iron.