

LEDBETTER

Albert Hannes attended the funeral of his uncle Alvin Siegmund at Taylor Wednesday afternoon.

Edgar Blume of San Antonio spent several days with his brother Kermit Blume and wife last week.

Lee Rethke and dranddaughter Joan Sue Hannes were business visitors at Giddings Saturday morning.

Mrs. T. M. Bennet and children of Houston and Colman Sanders and family of Buffalo spent the week-end at home with their parents Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sanders.

Miss Norma Bloh spent the week-end at Giddings and La Grange.

Henry Siegmund and family visited with relatives at Burton Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rust of Manor spent Friday and Saturday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Rust.

Louis Hannes and family of Dime Box spent awhile with A. O. Hannes and family Monday.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rethke were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Georgi and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Stork.

Valder Stuermer, Lee Rethke, Edwin Weber, Marvin Weise, and Clifton Etzel were in La Grange Tuesday.

Miss Ida Bell Light of Carmine spent Sunday with friends here.

A large crowd of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Alfred Brown Friday night, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by the following: Miss Frieda Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rethke, Edgar Rummel, Paul Werchan and Valder Stuermer of here, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lehmann and son, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Lehmann and daughter and Edwin Alaminsky of New Prospect, Mrs. Ella Werchan of Carmine, and Mr. and Mrs. John Brown of Walhalla. An enjoyable time was spent by all.

A very heavy rain fell here early Sunday morning which was badly needed for fall gardens. Many small plants had died during the hot, dry period, but everyone is busy replanting seeds and setting out cabbage plants. Turnip patches are looking fine and everyone is hoping for a good fall garden.

Next Sunday, Oct. 25 there will again be Lutheran church services by Rev. Max Studtmann of Giddings at our church, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.