

LEDBETTER NEWS

Ledbetter 4, Lincoln 11

According to their usual custom, the locals spotted Lincoln four runs in the first inning on one weak hit in the game at Lincoln last Sunday, the second meeting there between the two teams in the Lee County League, losing by the score of 11 to 4.

Dime Box is slated to meet the locals on the community center diamond here next Sunday in what may be the first game opener of the season, games with Loebau and Manheim having been rained out. All fans are invited to come out next Sunday to watch the locals try harder.

Manager Ben Braun has certified veteran Paul G. Baasen to replace Leon Sargent, who is making an indeterminate visit with homelinks in Pittsfield, N. H.

No Dance Saturday

The Fire Department regretfully announces that they are still wondering about the Wesley Wonders, KWHI performers, who failed to appear to fulfill their playing contract for the regular monthly dance of the fireboys in what would have been the largest crowd of the season.

Manager Whitehead of KWHI, contacted by phone Saturday evening, promised to investigate the alleged breach of contract and to eliminate the band from his station if sustained.

Family Reunion

All living children of Mrs. Ellen McClellan met in a family reunion at her home here last Sunday in honor of Mother's Day, which featured an immense country dinner. Gathered around the festive board were: Conway McClellan of Wichita Falls; Mrs. Addie Chamberlain of Highlands; Billie McClellan of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hill of Bellaire; Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Rost of Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Connor Woods of Beat Five; Miss Johnnie Mae McClellan of here and Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Rost and children of McDade, along with other grand children. Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Rost, who arrived from Long Beach last week, will remain on visit here until next week.

Birthday Celebration

Some sixty relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Mitschke last Wednesday, who honored his mother, Mrs. Otto Mitschke, with a barbecue dinner on the occasion of her 63rd birthday. Conversation and inspirational refreshment featured the gay affair, which lasted until the small hours of the morning.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Corrigan of Austin were Thursday visitors with her mother, Mrs. Martha Levy.

Miss Lois Rust of Austin visited relatives here over the weekend and participated in the Zoch-Munzel nuptials in Giddings, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl V. Wright of Houston, enroute Austin, stopped for a visit with relatives