

LEDBETTER NEWS

E. A. Rummel

Ledbetter 3, Loebau 2

The largest crowd of the season viewed the closely contested battle at the local community center diamond, Sunday, in which Ledbetter toppled league-leading Loebau 3 to 2. The game was a pitcher's duel between Loewe of Ledbetter and G. Schulze of Loebau, in which Loewe statistically edged Schulze by 14 strikeouts to 12, 6 hits to 8, and no bases on balls to 2 off Schulze. On earned runs, however, Loewe gave up 2 to Schulze's 1, two unearned runs scampered over the plate in the 2nd frame when center-fielder H. Schulze miscued Koerth's high fly with two out.

Manheim invades Ledbetter next Sunday, July 2, and all fans are enthusiastically invited to come out for a fine dish of baseball. Community center stands are well-prepared with refreshments to mitigate July heat.

Firemen's Dance Saturday

Etzel's Orchestra of Round Top will make merry music in modern and old time tunes at the regular monthly dance sponsored by the fire department at the community center next Saturday, July 1.

The boys extend a hearty invitation to the public to come out for an evening of pleasurable participation, and advise that an ample variety of refreshments will be available.

Socials

Miss Joan Williams of Imperial, Calif., on vacation with relatives in Prospect community, spent Sunday with Miss Joan Sue Hannes.

Architect Edwin L. Pohl of Austin spent the week-end with his family and other relatives.

Edgar Rummel was a Brenham visitor Tuesday and Wednesday for routine check-up at the St. Francis Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey B. Shaw of Houston and Phillip Armstrong, senior at Gallaudet College of Washington visited briefly with friends here Sunday afternoon.

Wilbert Light and family of Houston, returning from a fishing vacation on Lake Buchanan, spent Friday evening with W. O. Rauch and family.

Lee Leonhardt of Round Top was a business visitor here Sunday morning.