

LEDBETTER NEWS

E. A. Rummel

Schultz Family Reunion

Lineal descendants of Fritz and Henrietta Schultz gathered at Ledbetter Community Center last Sunday for their first family reunion. Various games, picture taking, picnic dinners and ample and varied refreshments were the highlights of the memorable occasion, which is expected to be an annual affair for the increasing family members.

Participating in the merry event were Walter Schultz and family, Elo Mueller and family, Mrs. Eugene Bartels and children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schultz, Max and Fred Schultz and M. E. Schmidt and family, all of Giddings; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Schultz, Walter W. Schultz and Lloyd Goehring of Houston; Mrs. Edwin Werchan of Paige; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Goehring and son Lester of Round Top; Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lehmann, Edward and Kenneth Lehmann of Carmine; M-Sgt. Arthur C. Wertz and family of Fort Hood; Eddie Schultz and family, Ed. Ebner and family and Miss Joan Sue Hannes of here.

Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mitschke were hospitable hosts to a very large crowd of friends and relatives Saturday evening in observance of their eighth wedding anniversary. Games, conversation and ample and continuous refreshment highlighted the merry affair, which lasted nearly to dawn Sunday morning. Out of town participants included: Mrs. Ella Sanders, Herbert O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kasper, A. F. Sanders, C. N. Sanders, Aruth Lee Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Mitschke, Mrs. Ida Schelke, Mr. and Mrs. C. Schelke, E. J. Mitschke and E. Mitschke and Miss Louise Pampell, all of Houston and vicinity.

Rains Fall

Drought of nearly three month duration was broken by a series of heavy rains which began Tuesday night with a 3-inch deluge, and have continued intermittently since to thoroughly soak the soil and fill all but the largest tanks. Local soils are still too boggy to plow for fall gardens, but ranges are greatly benefitted.

Socials

Members of the girls' softball team entertained a large crowd of their friends and supporters with a picnic at the Community Center Thursday evening.

Kermit Blume, Reuben Rust, Otis Rauch and Edgar Rummel attended the stag stew supper at Giddings last Wednesday evening.

Miss Lois Rust of Austin spent the holiday week-end visiting relatives and friends here and in Giddings.

Martin and Lawrence Lehmann and Edgar Rummel attended the Lee County League meeting in Lincoln Friday evening.

Mrs. B. J. Stork of Ennis was a Wednesday through Sunday visitor with relatives here.

Misses Lillian and Evelyn Stuermer returned Sunday from a two-week vacation in Arizona and New Mexico.

Salyer Vanderwerth and family of Houston spent the week-end with friends and relatives here.

A nearly record crowd attended the firemen's dance at the Community Center Friday evening.