Suffers Stroke

Albert Hannes, contractor on the Ledbetter-Winchester star route, became afflicted with a paralytic stroke late Saturday afternoon which left his entire right side immobilized and caused loss of speech. The contractor was committed to the La Grange Hospital that evening, and it was subsequently reported that the patient had slightly recovered the use of his voice.

Marvin Matejosky is temporary carrier on the star route.

More Rains Fall

Accompanied by high winds and intense electrical displays, a heavy rain fell shortly after dark Saturday and continued until after midnight, adding another 3½ inches to saturated soils and sending most creeks far above their banks and causing considerable soil washing in plowed gardens and fields.
