

LEDBETTER NEWS

E. A. Rummel

Ledbetter 8. Dime Box 1

Behind the flawless fireball hurling of Harold Loewe, who made his debut to the Lee County League, Ledbetter easily trounced Dime Box 8 to 1 on their diamond Sunday. Loewe struck out 15 gave but 3 hits, issued no passes and peppily finished his game by 3 strikeouts in the 9th frame.

Loebau meets the locals here next Sunday, June 25, and with the team further bolstered with the addition of Jerome Chovenac and Gilbert Mischer, fans are invited to come out to witness some fiery competition.

Socials

Mrs. Leonie Weyand of Beaumont and Mrs. Alma Rummel of Houston spent several days with relatives and friends here last week.

Herman Stork of Arlington spent the week-end with his father and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Blume left Wednesday for a week of vacation to Washington and other Atlantic coastal points.

Clifton Etzel, employed at Mumford, spent the week-end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Etzel.

Edgar Rummel spent the Juneteenth week-end with Judge John Simmang and family at Flag Pond.