BOYS HOG CONTEST

Lee County 4-H club boys who are doing the best swine work will compete in a hog contest Monday. They will be judged on feeders, waterers, pastures and management in general. Cash prizes will be awarded the boys who have done the best work.

The boys who will compete are as follows:

Fedor 4-H, Otto Polnick, Franklin Domann, Rudy Knippa, E. C. Knippa, Clarence Becker.

Manheim 4-H, Wilbert Birnbaum, Lawrence Wachsmann.

Nally 4-H, Arthur Lee Tomanez.

High Prairie 4-H, Harold Becker.

Lincoln 4-H, Isidor Knippa, Elmo Kieschnick, Victor Umlang.

Other than just on condition of the hogs, the hogs will not be judged. This will take place at the County Fair, September 18 - 20.

Chas. Kieschnick will be in charge of the hog show this fall and urges any breeder who has registered animals to get in touch with him and make arrangements to show. He states that he is looking for the best hog show that Lee County has ever had.
