PRIZE WINNING PIGS

The distribution of the registered Duroc-Jersey pigs to the 4H club boys that were winners took place at Herman Kieschnick's farm Wednesday. These pigs were raised by Lee County 4H club boys who had won pigs last year. Their only obligation was one pig from the first litter farrowed.

Talks and demonstrations were given by Elmo Kieschnick, Victor-Umlang, and Isidor Knippa, Lincoln, Lawrence Wächsmann, Manheim. Other boys who received pigs last year Edward Lee Tomanetz, Nally; Franklin Domann, Clarence Becker, Otto Polnick, Fedor; Harold Becker, High Prairie. Edward Lee Tomanetz showed the best hog at the County Fair and was awarded a registered Jersey Heifer.

The boys who received gilt pigs Wednesday were Junios Mattiza, Concord; J. A. Burgdorf, Jr., Marvin Saegert, Friendship; Alvin Kessel, Serbin; Rudy Knippa, Monroe Domann, Fedor; Bennie Woodward, Nally; George Moore, Knobbs; Alfred Karcher, Lincoln. These boys will compete this year at the County Fair for a registered Jersey heifer. Wilbert Birnbaum, Manheim, was awarded a registered male pig that was purchased from the Experiment Station at College Station and will compete in a district contest.
