

4-H Club Boys Receive Awards

Lee County 4-H Club boys received awards for outstanding work done during the past year at the annual 4-H Club rally at Lincoln community hall last Saturday.

Receiving awards were Randolph Woelfel of Lincoln, Raymond Wendland of Fedor, Myron Schneider of Giddings, Bobby Rodgers of Lexington, and Alfred Boriack of Lincoln. Walter Helmer Jr. of Dime Box was named county gold star boy.

County Judge John S. Simmang presented medals to the boys, and Paul Nerger, president of the Citizens State Bank presented green cotton gabardine jackets to the same boys, courtesy of the bank.

A large crowd of club boys, girls, parents, and friends attended the meeting. Speakers on the program included W. L. Ulrich, agriculture engineer for the Extension Service, whose theme was that one could do anything one wished as long as it was right.

Other speakers were John A. Reat, president of the Lee County Farm Bureau, and John Longley, president of the Lee County Corn Club of 1910, who congratulated the boys for their good work.

Clarence and Alfred Symmank, members of the Lincoln 4-H Club, played several numbers on string instruments throughout the program. Group singing of "America the Beautiful" and the national anthem, led by Mrs. Adolph Behrens, were features on the program.

Ice cream and soft drinks were served to the group. The refreshments were made possible through the courtesy of the Lee County Farm Bureau.

Plans for this rally and all other 4-H Club activities are made by the following adult leaders: Leonard Kappler and Henry Stroebel of Giddings, Herbert Wachsmann of Mannheim, E. F. Wendland of Fedor, Arnold Kleinschmidt of Lexington, Walter Helmer of Dime Box, Mrs. Adolph Behrens and Herbert Falke of Long Branch, and August Horn of Lincoln.
