

The Giddings News

October 12, 1923

Ginnings Heavy

Frank and Jeff Brown of above Lexington were in town Thursday. Crops are only fair this year on account of the recent rains which put the smaller streams out of banks. The gin which Frank is running this season has ginned 510 bales against 375 for last year. There is considerable cotton yet to be picked in that neighborhood.