

The Giddings News

July 4, 1924

Lexington Reunion

The Reunion given at Lexington Tuesday was a decided success. Free barbecued meats were furnished and there was sufficient meat for everyone to get what he wanted. Some meat was left after serving the dinner meal. The crowd was estimated at 7,000 and was fully as large as the crowd attending the Giddings Firemen's Barbecue.

Everything passed off as planned with no mishaps. There was plenty of shade and amusements, the entire day being given over to a lengthy program of varied forms of amusements.