LEXINGTON CHURCH HAS 50th ANNIVERSARY

The congregation of the St. James' Lutheran church observed its 50th anniversary Sunday.

The Rev. E. Steyer conducted the morning service and the Rev. G. A. Obenhaus of Clifton the service in the afternoon. Both preachers are former pastors of the church.

In December, 1891, the church was built and dedicated in Lexington at its present location. Six years before this services were conducted in the Germania school house by the Rev. G. Birkmann, then stationed at Fedor.
