

The Giddings News

April 3, 1942

Women Meeting at Lexington.

A School of Instruction for the W. M. U. women of the Burleson-Lee Baptist Association was held at Lexington on Monday March 23. Mrs. R. L. Brown of College Station, Mrs. McNeilly of Elgin and Mrs. Rogers of Madisonville were the speakers for the day. The Caldwell, Somerville, Giddings, Tanglewood and Pleasant Grove churches were represented by a good attendance. At noon the Lexington W. M. S. served a beautifully appointed luncheon in the spacious home of Mrs. Curtis Parker. A color scheme of red, white and blue was carried out throughout the home. American flags, red verbena and bluebonnets were used effectively in the decorations. Plate favors were American flags. A most enjoyable and profitable day was enjoyed by everyone present. Those from Giddings were: Mesdames L. Fariss, Marie Fletcher, A. J. Nesbit, Allan Hester, Ed. Daniel, Walter Arndt, Henry Lehman, Mrs. Beulah Brooks.
