

The Giddings News

February 10, 1950

LEXINGTON NEWS

Most everyone here is sick with either the flue or the mumps. Half of the pupils were out of school last week. Some of the teachers are ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mathis of Lissie, Texas, spent Monday with his brother, Will Mathis.

Those from Lexington who attended the Fat Stock Show in Houston were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gould, Mrs. Jas. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Perry, and Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Jenson.

Moon Nettles of Houston is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Carrie Nettles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Knight of Corcoran, Calif., are visiting with relatives in Lexington, Dime Box, and Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lucker and family spent Sunday in San Antonio. While there they visited Will Shaw, only living child of Captain James Shaw, founder of Lexington.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schulz and family were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Buscha and children and Aunt Buscha of Greens Creek.