

The Giddings News

July 14, 1950

LEXINGTON NEWS

Mrs. E. E. Shivers

Attend Reunion

Those from Lexington attending the 46 class reunion in Austin Sunday were Dorris Knippa, Margarette Jane Tucker, Robert Ahrendt and Kenneth Rockdel. There were ten members of the class present.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hooper and son Ronnie and Mrs. C. Koch of Houston spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mrs. Ina Mae Perry, Billie Jo Young and Margarette Jane Tucker returned from Kansas City where they spent 10 days at the National Home Economical meeting reported a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rutland and granddaughters Margarette Ann Simmons spent a week in Eldorado.

Mrs. Will Mathis returned home after a week's visit with her children in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Perkins and son of Houston spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hilliard.

Rodney Brow, after spending his vacation with relatives, returned to Houston. He is employed with the Shell Refinery.

Mrs. E. E. Shivers spent Tuesday in Temple visiting friends at Scott and White Hospital. She also visited the McCloskey V. A. Hospital and took magazines and flowers. Mrs. Shivers wishes to thank those who contributed the magazines. They are appreciated.