

LEXINGTON NEWS

Mrs. E. E. Shivers

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knippa Sr. are wearing a broad smile. They are the proud grandparents of a fine grandson. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Marburger of Waco.

Attend Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shivers and daughter Sue of Houston are spending their vacation with friends and relatives in Lexington.

Hayride

Mrs. Joe Browder sponsored about 20 young people on a hayride, swimming and picnicing to Taylor.

Attend Party

Mrs. E. E. Shivers and Mrs. Bernice Tucker attended a party at McClosky V. A. Hospital where the personnel of the hospital received certificates of reward for serving at least 100 hours since 1946.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Jas Forbis of Austin spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Will Mathis. Mr. Forbis had bad luck in getting his jaw bone broken while playing ball.

Several citizens of Lexington attended the funeral of Mrs. Joiner Tuesday at McDade. Mrs. Joiner was living in Lexington at the time of her death.

Mrs. Robert Reynolds returned home after a two-week visit with her sister at Bledso, Texas and to Mexico and California.