

LEXINGTON NEWS

Mrs. E. E. Shivers

On Sick List

Mrs. Frank Ball is on the sick list.

Improving

Donald Brown has returned from a Temple hospital. He is much improved.

Personals

Mrs. Minnie Kidwell of Houston visited her mother, Mrs. Alvin A. McRea last week.

Mrs. Lee Bostick of McDade was a business visitor here Saturday.

The men of the Methodist Brotherhood had open house here on Thursday night. Many attended the supper prepared by the ladies. Senator Thornberry was guest speaker, introduced by the president of the brotherhood, John Reat.

Mrs. Sudie Eckman of San Marcos visited relatives and friends here during the week.

Mrs. H. Rutland is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Bob Warren, who is critically ill.

Visiting in the Will Mathis home over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Pierce and daughter, Virginia Sue, Mr. and Mrs. James Forbis, Mr. and Mrs. Glen McDavid of Aus-

Island visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Ratslaff on Sunday.

Otto Raisner returned from his deer hunt on Monday. He brought back one deer.

Mrs. Pollie Hooper is visiting with relatives in Tanglewood this week.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Woodward are business visitors this week in Houston.