

The Giddings News

December 15, 1950

LEXINGTON NEWS

Mrs. E. E. Shivers

Expresses Thanks

Wish to take this means to thank all those contributing the nice lot of magazines for the Veterans Hospital, to Mr. Schulz of Giddings, Mr. Marburger of Lincoln, and Fred Morris of Lexington.

Singing Convention

The Sandy Land Singing Convention will meet with an all-day singing at the Methodist Church at Lexington. Everyone is invited to come and bring someone.

Birthday Host

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Peebles entertained the following guests Sunday in the honor of her father, Bob Brown of Fredericksburg, on his 84th birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Krause and son of Fredericksburg, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Monty Morgan of Austin, Hub P. Brown of Houston and Hy. Bob Brown of Austin.

Personals

Elmore Jordan returned after several days of deer hunting. The answer: No Luck!

Rodney and Donald Brown spent the week-end in Houston.

Mrs. Elmore Jordan spent the week-end with relatives in Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tucker and son Douglass spent Sunday in Yoakum with relatives.

G. M. Rutland of El Campo and Mrs. Lucile Turner of Houston spent the week-end in the Tucker home.