

LINCOLN LOCALS.

Miss Martha Petzold of La Grange spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zwernemann.

Miss Annie Schubert of Austin was the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schubert, for the New Year.

Miss Marie Treckmann of Bastrop visited here a few days before leaving for Baylor University to resume her work there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Moerbe and sister, Miss Minnie, were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zwernemann.

Miss Pauline Zwernemann of San Antonio visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zwernemann a few days.

Ben Symmank visited his parents in La Grange during the holidays.

John Handrick who is a student in A. & M., visited Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Handrick.

Miss Cydell Killough spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Killough.

Raymond Goode was a Lexington visitor New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Zwernemann and family spent Sunday with Petzold's at Waldeck.

Mr. Will Warren was the guest of friends and relatives in Bastrop Sunday.

Mrs. Jim Warren has accepted the position as teacher in the Elm Creek school and began her work Jan. 3rd.

Mr. Leonard Cook will leave for Eagle Lake Tuesday to serve as section foreman for an indefinite length of time.

Mrs. Aug. Mucke spent a week with her daughter, Mrs. George Cuzick, in Ft. Worth recently.

Several of the young people attended the party at the Wagner home at Leo New Year's Day.