

LINCOLN LOCALS

Mr. Herbert Placke departed for Cross Plains Monday where he expects to go to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McKeown of Giddings visited relatives here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gruetzer of Lexington were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schkade Sunday.

The little infant of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Weiser is very ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. W. E. Schubert returned from Hearne Monday where she spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Murphy. She was accompanied by her mother Mrs. Frank Mathis, of Lexington.

Word was received here Tuesday morning that the Angel of Death had entered the Knox home near Dime Box and had taken the master of the home, Mr. R. A. Knox, to his eternal resting place. The writer extends to the bereaved family her heartfelt sympathy in their hour of sorrow.