Ladies Aid Meets

The Ladies Aid of St. John's Lutheran Church held its regular meeting March 11 in the Parish Hall.

Inspirational talk was given by our vacancy pastor, the Rev.
Hartfield.

The roll call was taken with one absent and one visitor. The minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as read.

Mrs. Paul Iselt of the Sunshine Committee reported visiting Mrs. Louis Proske who is ill in the hospital. A speedy recovery is wished for her.

It was decided to clean the church on March 20, and also work in the pastor's garden.

The meeting closed with a short prayer led by Rev. H.
Hartfield.

Men's Club Organized

Sunday, March 11, a Men's Club was organized at St. John's under the direction of Teacher Wolf. Sixteen members organized the first Men's Club at St.
John's. Each member is to bring a new member for the next meeting to start a 100% membership drive.

The second Sunday of each month has been set aside for their meeting. All men of the congregation are invited to come and join in Christian fellowship and service.

The following officers were elected: E. L. Kissman, president; A. Isedor Knippa, vice-president; Martin Boriack, secretary; Fred Foerster, treasurer; Teacher Wolf, membership secretary for Lutheran Laymen's League (LLL).
