19090701. Löbau. Giddings Deutsches Volksblatt, 1 July 1909. Image 11200372.

Loebau.

Troden fehr troden ift immer noch das Losungswort bier, aus ber Kornernte wird nichts. Las meiste Korn ift in Folge der grohen hipe welt geworden, auch Baffer mangelt. Benn nicht bald tüchtig Regen tommt wird auch die Baumwolle bald not leiden.

. Toch noch wollen wir hoffen, des guädigen Baters hand fteht uns noch offen.

Die Rartoffel Ernte war gut hier. Die Gartengewächse find bereits ausgetrochnet. Mit Rohl stebts schlecht.

Am löten Juni feierte Ernft Fritiche und Chefran filberne Dochzeit im engeren Familientreife.

Möge das erwähnte Chepaar noch recht lange in Glud und Frieden leben dann solls in spätrer Zeit auch goldene Hochzeit geben: Der Unterzeichnete widmet fol-

Binit Eser Fress) fat fert Bet ad the Blis and Enga Kal sles Carra Begen San nad ber hibernen Codurit. Der Mirthenftang bet mellet Ersn bisthen Gilber Relfer Ente Lei unb Bresben End . Ter liebe Gott fol geben Tab 3he merbet erieben Die golbene Congeit Burabenrid Rad bicen Erbenichen Col Boit ben fimmel geben Den Erst anb Ch'acipons Die falsen bin seifresben Bir ale Emiglebiz Del wisitt ves ferre

Löbau

The word here is still, dry very dry, and nothing will become of the grain harvest. Most of the grain, because of the intense heat, has wilted and, we are also lacking in water. If it doesn't rain a lot soon, cotton will also be in distress.

Still, we are hoping that the hand of the gracious Father will still be open to us.

The potato harvest was good here. The garden plants have already dried out. It looks bad for kale.

Ernst Fritsche and his wife celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on the 15th of June among family members.

May the named couple live long in happiness and peace so that a golden anniversary may be in store for them, in the future.

The undersigned dedicates the following congratulation.

Hear this, Ernst and Marie Fritsche, That all that is good and useful Wishes your friend for you today. May God give you goodness and blessing On all of your journeys Now, following your silver wedding anniversary.

As your myrtle wreath was wilting Silver shoots were blossoming For you, through suffering and joy. May the dear God grant You to live to experience of The golden wedding anniversary joyfully.

Following this life on earth May God grant Heaven To Ernst and his spouse With the beautiful joys of Heaven, Through all eternity. These are wishes from the heart. Michel Sohns.

Translated by John Buerfeind