Those from here attending church at Lexington Sunday were: Mrs. Ernest Pampell and children Arnold, Clara and Mary.

Victor Nimitz and wife of Spring spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Gerh. Fritsche.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Iselt of Houston spent the week-end here with relatives.

Ernest Schiewart, Jr. and family of Lincoln spent a while Sunday night in the home of C. M. Rackel and family.

Mrs. David Karcher and baby spent awhile Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerh. Matthijetz.

Ewald Kasper and Alwin Schulze and families of Austin spent Sunday in the home of Richard Wobus.

Clara, Mary and Elizabeth Pampell spent Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rackel.

H. H. Reat, Mrs. J. S. Reat and Miss Ruth Reat of Tanglewood visited relatives here Sunday.

A number of people have rooms in town and some are living in trailer houses nearby as the work is soon to begin again on the highway between Caldwell and Giddings; possibly the excessive rains will delay the work considerably.
