

The Giddings News

March 10, 1922

Manheim News

Here I am again with a few pickups from Manheim.

The farmers are all busy planting corn this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kieschnick spend Sunday night with Wm. Gropp and family.

Miss Hattie Ritche is in Giddings now.

Mrs. Otto Schade is still in Austin with her daughter Miss Selma who was operated on appendicitis some time past.

Mrs. Wm. Gropp is on the sick list this week. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Those who spent Sunday evening at the home of Wm. Gropp were: Mrs. Ed. Behrend, Mr. John Foerster and daughter Edna of Paige and the Misses Kurths.

Mr. Otto Kieschnick and family motored to Fedor Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wachmann and Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Horn Jr. spend Sunday night in the home of Chas. Kurth.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Winkler and children of Fedor spend Saturday and Sunday with Wm. Eschberger and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Horn Jr. visited Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Birnbaum Sr. Sunday.

Mrs. Aug. Winkler and daughter Miss Delle of Fedor were visitors in the home of Adolph Wachsman.

Herman Schade left last Monday for Austin.

Alvin Winkler and wife spend Sunday in the home of Mr. Schkade and family.

I had better skid-oo, so best wishes to the News and its many readers.

- A Reader