

The Giddings News

July 13, 1923

Manheim News

The crops around this place here will be short this year. But for all the dry weather we are having they are really better than expected.

Cotton is doing nicely only a good rain would be appreciated.

The picnic at Manheim on the Fourth of July was well attended. People came from far and near and the day was spent pleasantly.

Hugo Horn, Sr., and family spent Sunday evening with Hugo Horn, Jr. and wife.

The parties at the homes of Ernest Laake and Hugo Horn, Jr. Sunday night were well attended and enjoyed by all.

Herbert Wachsmann and wife and daughter Florence, visited Chas. Kurth and family Sunday night.

Paul Kleschnick and family of Port Arthur are visiting relatives and friends at Manheim.

Werner Kleschnick of Aleman is spending a while with his home folks here.

Chas. Kurth and family were visitors in the Wachsmann home Sunday evening.

Mr. Wm. Gropp and family accompanied by some other parties (whose names I failed to get) motored to Austin last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Louise Kluge and children and Clara Wachsmann visited Oswald Birnbaum and family Sunday evening.

Mr. Edwin Koslan is a visitor at Manheim for the last week.

Best wishes to the News and the many readers.

"A Reader"