

The Giddings News

July 11, 1924

Manheim Fourth

The people of Manheim put on a big Fourth of July celebration and the results were that those in attendance enjoyed a big time, and the promoters realized a neat profit from the event. There was prepared for the occasion:

2,600 lbs. meat
70 cases bottled drinks
700 loaves of bread
45 gallons ice cream.
The bread was not sufficient, but there was enough meat and it was well prepared.